

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when companies like yours
control the
airwaves, we get
less of what we need
for our democracy.
Instead of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real
people from our own
communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

I intend to write
to each sponsor to inform them that my family will not buy/use their products. Thank you.
